

Lorne Hill Farm
Quilting and Craft workshop

MEDALLION QUILT CLASS
With Lynne Johnson

Commences Wednesday 25th May

Medallion quilts are so named because you begin with the centre medallion (either pieced or appliquéd) and then the quilt grows as you add more pieced and appliquéd borders – either by machine or hand stitching, whichever you prefer.

These beautiful quilts really are amazingly achievable as you meet once a month with Lynne for tutoring on how to make each section. This class proves to be a success with quilters of all levels with beginners as welcome as experienced quilters.

Lynne is a friendly, experienced teacher and this course has proved to be a tremendous success whenever she has held it.

Classes will be held on the last Wednesday of each month, and you don't have to come every time, Lynne can tutor you at whichever stage you are.

As usual, the cost is £30 for the day including a light farmhouse lunch. Secure a place with a £30 deposit, then pay £30 each time you come, except for the last time, which will be covered by the deposit.
